This inspection was completed on Tuesday. Nice and dry floor

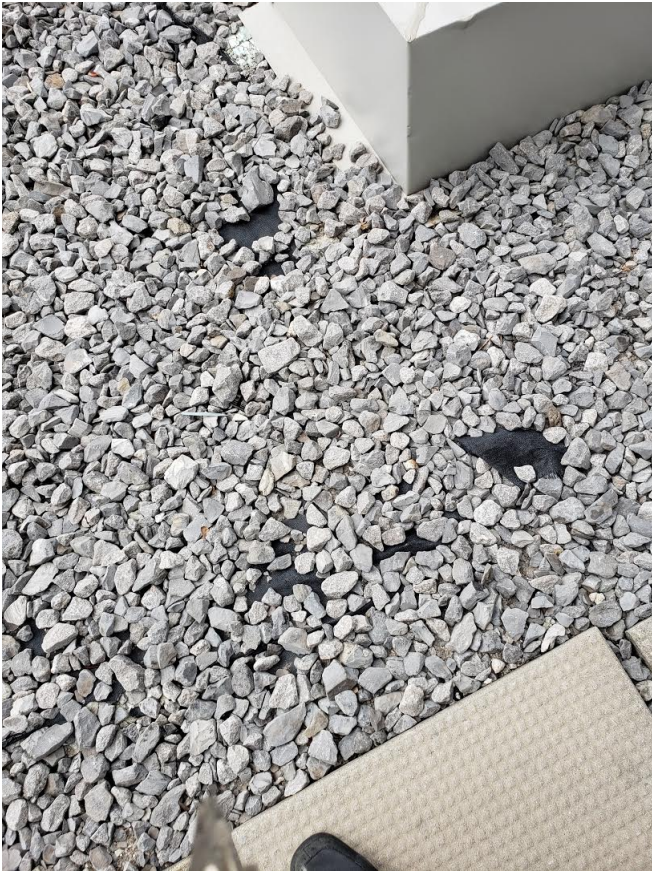

This Fan in P2 seemed louder than the rest so best to keep an eye on this one. I will check when I am back on Tuesday of next week.

These two photos are of the bike racks at another building that I promised to share as an option for Sussex Square. In this garage it is a slurry wall and a challenge to hang in the Sussex garage it would be so much simpler.

When on the roof I noted that the gravel needs to be lightly rakes to cover the protective fabric. I will ask Eric to do this next week.

Regards,
